

July 29, 2008

HG Mixers selected for Sherritt Project

Hayward Gordon has been awarded the contract to supply 50 high pressure autoclave mixers to Sherritt International's, Ambatovy project in Madagascar. This lateritic nickel mineral processing facility is projected to be one of the world's largest in just 5 years.

Sherritt is a diversified natural resource company that produces nickel, cobalt, thermal coal, oil and gas and electricity. www.sherritt.com